Overseas Personnel Rotation Policy

The attached was prepared for my signature and originally addressed to the Director of Personnel. I believe it more a matter of your concern in the first instance, and then of a conference between you and Mr. Kelly. The next obvious step is for you, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Reber to have an informal session on the subject when you get time.

I also think this is a proper subject for you to bring up at your first staff meeting tomorrow.
